Capo 1

Let There Be

Ryan Miller

```
        C
How marvelous your work
                              F                          G
How wonderful is your creation Lord; your creation Lord
        C
How marvelous your work
                                   F                          G
How wonderful is your creation Lord; that proclaims your name

      Am        F
And I ----- just want to praise you
Am       F
I ------ can do nothing less
Am       F                                        C
I ------ am awed by the power of your words
             G                 C
“Let there be” (coda: “Let there be”)

F                          G
Let there be light Let there be dark
C                          C/B                    Am
Let there be stars spread across the sky
F                         G
Let there be life Let there be love
C
Let there be creatures and plants and
G                    F                                  G
People whose acts reveal their Creator’s name

      C
No eye has ever seen, no ear has ever heard
        F                                G
Your voice call out – Your voice call out
      C
No eye has ever seen, no ear has ever heard
        F                                      G
Your voice call out – Before there was time
